Sept. 10 (UPI) -- The bodies of a missing woman and man are being recovered from the south side of Lake Pepin in the U.S. state of Minnesota. Authorities say a woman in her 60s and a man in his 30s have been found dead in the water following a boating accident. Authorities say a 55-year-old man was driving a sport-utility vehicle on the south side of Lake Pepin, about 20 miles north of Saint Paul, when his boat crashed into a sinkhole and capsized. The two man are missing. The National Weather Service says water levels on Lake Pepin are expected to reach 13 feet, a full two feet above normal for this time of year.
